

GEORGE GIBSON RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF PIRATES; McKECHINE SUCCEEDS HIM

Pittsburgh, June 30.—George Gibson, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates since the spring of 1920, today announced his resignation to his players when they went to the showers after their defeat by St. Louis. It is effective immediately. Less than an hour later the management of the team announced that William McKechine, of Williamsburg, assistant manager, would succeed Gibson.

Gibson did not relate details in his short speech, but a report had it that he has been dissatisfied with the showing in the past two weeks and feels he should step out and give another man a chance at the helm.

Gibson was for a number of years a Pirate catcher, playing in the 1909 world series with Detroit. He was later released to the Giants as a coach. He returned to Pittsburgh in 1920, succeeding Hugo Bedek.

LATONIA DERBY TO BE RACING FEATURE TODAY

Cincinnati, June 30.—The Latonia derby, to be run at Latonia, Ky., tomorrow, will bring together a field of probably six thoroughbreds of contest for the $15,000 stake, over a mile and a half route. Chief interest among horsemen today centered on Olympus and Broomstick, from the Harry Payne Whitney stable, and Thibou, runner-up to Whiskaway in the Kentucky special last week, when Morvich was beaten off and finished a trailing third.

Other probable starters are John Finn, which ran third in the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs, Yoshimi and Margaret Winsor. The latter, the only filly in the race, will carry 121 pounds against 126 pounds for each of the colts.

Exterminator, W. S. Kidner's iron horse, arrived at the Latonia track from the East yesterday. The McGee stable claimed well and will be a starter in the independence handicap on July 4 in this race he will carry an impost of 140 pounds.

PIERSON WINS NEW JERSEY JUNIOR GOLF TITLE

Ardley, N. Y., June 30.—Charles Pierson of New York, N. Y., won the Metropolitan golf association's junior amateur championship tournament over the links of the Ardley club today. He defeated Richard A. Jones, Jr., the defeated champion, of the Westchester Hills Country club, White Plains, N. Y., 2 up and 1 to play in the final round.

When Pierson played on the extra hole to win from E. W. Haley of Essex County, N. J., Pierson also won the qualifying medal after a tie with Haley.

Ashland vs. Taftville

With an even break with the weather, the highest crowd of the season will turn out at Ashland Park, Jewett City, Sunday to witness the battle between the two biggest rivals in this section.

The fans are expectant of real fireworks and they generally get their expect.

Only a half game separates these teams in the Eastern Connecticut League standing, which means an added stimulus for each club and their followers.

This game was scheduled for the 4th but as each team had an open date for Sunday it was decided to mix it up at the earliest date possible. Neither could see any reason for prolonging the chance to get at the other.

As both teams are composed of practically all local material the feeling is even more intense than usual.

Manager Chase of Ashland has but one change in his lineup. With Bill Ringland playing second he has bolstered up a position that has been weak all season, and in addition Bill's club will come in handy on the offense.

The pitching selection for both teams is in question, a great deal depending on the selection for Saturday's game. Manager Frohmader of Taftville refers in the article which appeared in these columns recently, to the fact that Liberty to date has yet to register his first win over Taftville.

The old saying of the bucket going to the well, etc., holds true now as always, and Spike in his present form can stand the Taftville club on their heads, and Ashland is counting on the game he pitches, which will probably be Sunday.

On the other hand Morin of Taftville generally has his work cut out for him when working against Ashland. The breaks of the game can't always go against the same club.

BIG NAVY GAME AT SUB BASE TODAY

Two rival navy teams will meet this afternoon at the Sub Base field when the Flotilla will have for opponents the Torpedo Station from Newport, R. I.

The teams met earlier in the season at Newport, when the Flotilla were winding up their trip through New England, and the Torpedo Station came out on top to a 5-3 score.

If Newport wins today's game they will be the undisputed champions of the Northern Atlantic Coast. But the Flotilla have predicted an even score after today's game, then they will have to play a third game on neutral ground to decide which team is the logical contender to play Hampton Roads for the championship of the whole Atlantic coast and possibly the entire navy.

Today being pay day at the Base the local "gobs" will have their cash ready to back their team against Newport, which always is their most feared rivals.

HARTFORD FEDERALS PLAY AT BALTIMORE SUNDAY

On Sunday at Sayles Field the Baltimore team will play the fast Federals of Hartford who are coming down to take a fall-out of the Baltimore team. Red Charon, formerly of Baltimore is in their lineup. In a letter to manager Collins Red says the Baltimore team will be on the small side of the score.

The Baltimore team has not played on the home lots in 2 weeks and have a reputation of being a good road team having defeated Plainfield and last

It Will Grow.

Democracy can never be extended by force, as you would find a net over a flock of birds; but give it a chance and it will grow, as a tree grows, by sending down its roots into the heart of humanity and lifting its top toward the light and spreading its arms wider and wider until all the persecuted flocks of heaven find refuge beneath its protecting shade.—Henry Van Dyke.

The Savior in Profane History.

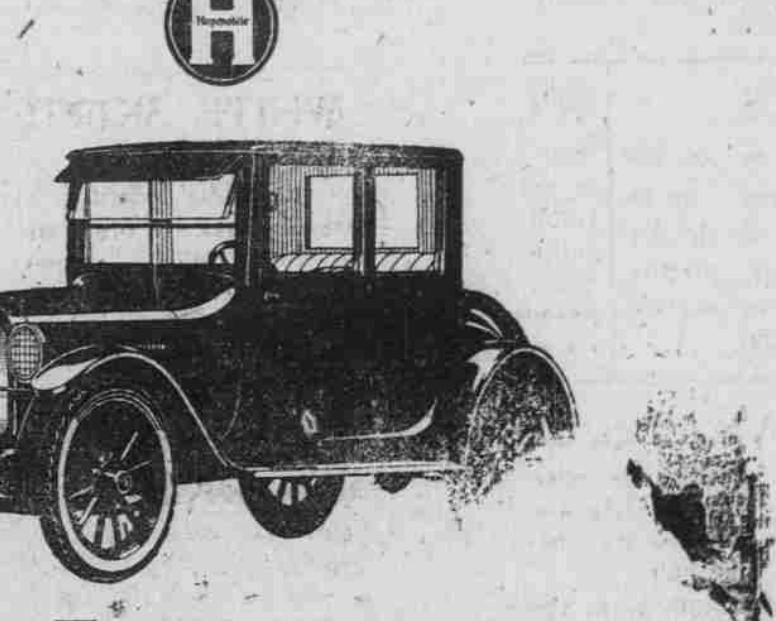

Among the historical references to Jesus Christ which are undisputed is that made by Tacitus, the Roman historian, who on speaking of the Christians said, "The originator of that name had been executed in the reign of Tiberius by order of the administrator, Pontius Pilate." This may be found in the Annals of Tacitus. Reference to Christ is also made in the "Antiquities of Josephus," a Jewish historian, who was contemporary with Christ, but this passage is declared by some to be a forgery.

Not Inclined to Explain.

The average man is perfectly willing, after he has made a lucky mistake, to have it referred to as "a stroke of genius."

The oldest crane in the world is located in Trier, on the River Moselle, in France. A preserved record shows it was built in 1413. It is still in use.
